Celebrate National Wildlife Refuge Week at Chincoteague National Wildlife Refuge

Celebrate National Wildlife Refuge Week at Chincoteague National Wildlife Refuge on October 10th – 11th from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm. Visitors will be admitted to the Refuge free of charge on Saturday, October 10th to enjoy a wildlife art show, a variety of family activities and refreshments at the Herbert H. Bateman Educational and Administrative Center. Nature programs will be conducted throughout the day which includes an exciting live-animal presentation by the Virginia Living Museum and hands-on demonstrations from the Leave No Trace Traveling Trainers. Explore booths and activities from some of our local partners and conservation organizations. “Give Wing to Your Wild Side” and enjoy a day at your National Wildlife Refuge!

The mission of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service is working with others to conserve, protect and enhance fish, wildlife, plants and their habitats for the continuing benefit of the American people. We are both a leader and trusted partner in fish and wildlife conservation, known for our scientific excellence, stewardship of lands and natural resources, dedicated professionals and commitment to public service. For more information on our work and the people who make it happen, visit www.fws.gov.
